

Hello Everyone,

On Friday, 23rd September, we will be showing 'Mr. Turner' in Sarn Village Hall.

As usual, we will have a licenced bar also offering tea, coffee and soft cold drinks; there will be a short refreshments interval roughly half way through the film

"What a glorious film this is, richly and immediately enjoyable, hitting its satisfying stride straight away. It's funny and visually immaculate; it combines domestic intimacy with an epic sweep and has a lyrical, mysterious quality that perfumes every scene, whether tragic or comic." Peter Bradshaw, The Guardian

"A movie as bold and deep as a Turner landscape, as sharp as light on water." Jeff Baker, Portland Oregonian

Tickets can be pre-purchased on-line and a trailer for the film may be viewed at:

Please, please tell anyone and everyone else you know who might be interested.

Thank you.

I look forward to seeing you on 23rd September.

My best

Owen

Mr. Turner explores the last quarter century of the great if eccentric British painter J.M.W. Turner (1775-1851). Profoundly affected by the death of his father, loved by a housekeeper he takes for granted and occasionally exploits sexually, he forms a close relationship with a seaside landlady with whom he eventually lives incognito in Chelsea, where he dies. Throughout this, he travels, paints, stays with the country aristocracy, visits brothels, is a popular if anarchic member of the Royal Academy of Arts, has himself strapped to the mast of a ship so that he can paint a snowstorm, and is both celebrated and reviled by the public and by royalty. Starring: Timothy Spall, Paul Jesson, Dorothy Atkinson
